POLICE

Seek Murderer in the Cleveland Mystery

GIRL'S LOVE PLATONIC

Officers Are Puzzled As To Motive of the Crime

Letters Found Show That Girl Lived in Fear of Her Life.

Cleveland, O., March 31.—With revelations of the autopsy that a third person probably killed Miss Lena Zeichman, the school teacher, and Carl Bernthal, the music teacher, the police today are investigating the lives of the victims and inside facts as to their families. The autopsy showed that the wounds were so located that it is practically impossible that either victim fired the shots.

The autopsy on the girl showed that her love for the music teacher was purely platonic. The revolver with which the killing was done has not been found after a most careful search.

The theory of the investigating officer is that the murderer came upon Miss Zeichman and Bernthal as they sat under a tree in the woods leaned over and shot Bernthal through the shoulder, piercing his heart. The woman got up and started to run and thereupon the murderer fired at her twice. The first bullet was found in the fence. The second one killed the girl. What is now puzzling the police is the motive for the crime. To discover this investigation of all relationships are being made. Letters have been found showing that Miss Zeichman as well as her sister, who is now married, lived in fear. Mr. Zeichman still insists that Bernthal killed his daughter.

KILLS WIFE AND SELF

Thought Dead Son Had Commanded That a Family Reunion Be Held.

New York, March 31.—Believing that his dead son, Edward, whose ashes stood in an urn at the head of his bed, had commanded a family reunion, Frank Randall of Brooklyn fatally shot his wife and then killed himself. The tragedy followed a long talk in which Randall engaged with the spirit of his son.

M'KINNON

Will Not Go Abroad for Health, But Has Engaged Attorneys to Appear for Him at Investigation.

Columbus, March 31.—It developed Tuesday at a meeting of the state treasury investigating committee that Treasurer McKinnon instead of going abroad for his health Wednesday, has engaged a Columbus firm of lawyers to represent him at the probe and will put up a fight for what he believes are his rights.

OHIO POSTMASTERS.

Washington, D. C., March 31.—These Ohio postmasters were nominated today: Thomas G. Moore, Barnesville; Lee L. Cassidy, Dresden; Robt. H. Wiley, Flushing; Mary M. Carey, Lexington.

CHESTER GILLETTE

BURIED TODAY

Auburn, N. Y., March 31.—Chester Gillette was buried this afternoon in Soule cemetery. In all just nine persons were at the grave side of Grace Brown's murderer.

THOUGHT PATIENT WILL RECOVER

Philadelphia, March 31.—Senator Penrose's condition continues to improve and his physicians say unofficially that if the kidney complications improve as much today as in the last 24 hours, the patient will recover.

PRECAUTIONS

Will Be Taken by Chicago Officials to Guard Secretary Taft in That City Friday.

Chicago, March 31.—Great preparations will be taken to protect Secretary Taft when he comes here Friday. Police officials say that they have reason to fear for his safety. Taft will be guarded every minute during his stay by police squads and detectives.

YOUNG GIRL KILLS SELF

WHEN LOVER WROTE THEY COULD MEET ONLY AS FRIENDS.

Slashes Throat With Razor and Bleeds to Death in Father's Arms.

Zanesville, March 31.—Miss Hore Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dilbert Jones, prominent residents of Woodsfield, slashed her throat with a razor yesterday and bled to death in her father's arms. Her health from a severe attack of the grip and despondency from an unfortunate love affair are the causes assigned for the suicide. For the past several years she had been courted by a student, who is now attending a dental school in Chicago. During his visit home several months ago, it is claimed, he failed to pay her the usual attentions. In a letter which Miss Jones received from him a few weeks ago, he told her, so it is said, that hereafter they could be only friends.

Miners May Lay Down Tools at Midnight

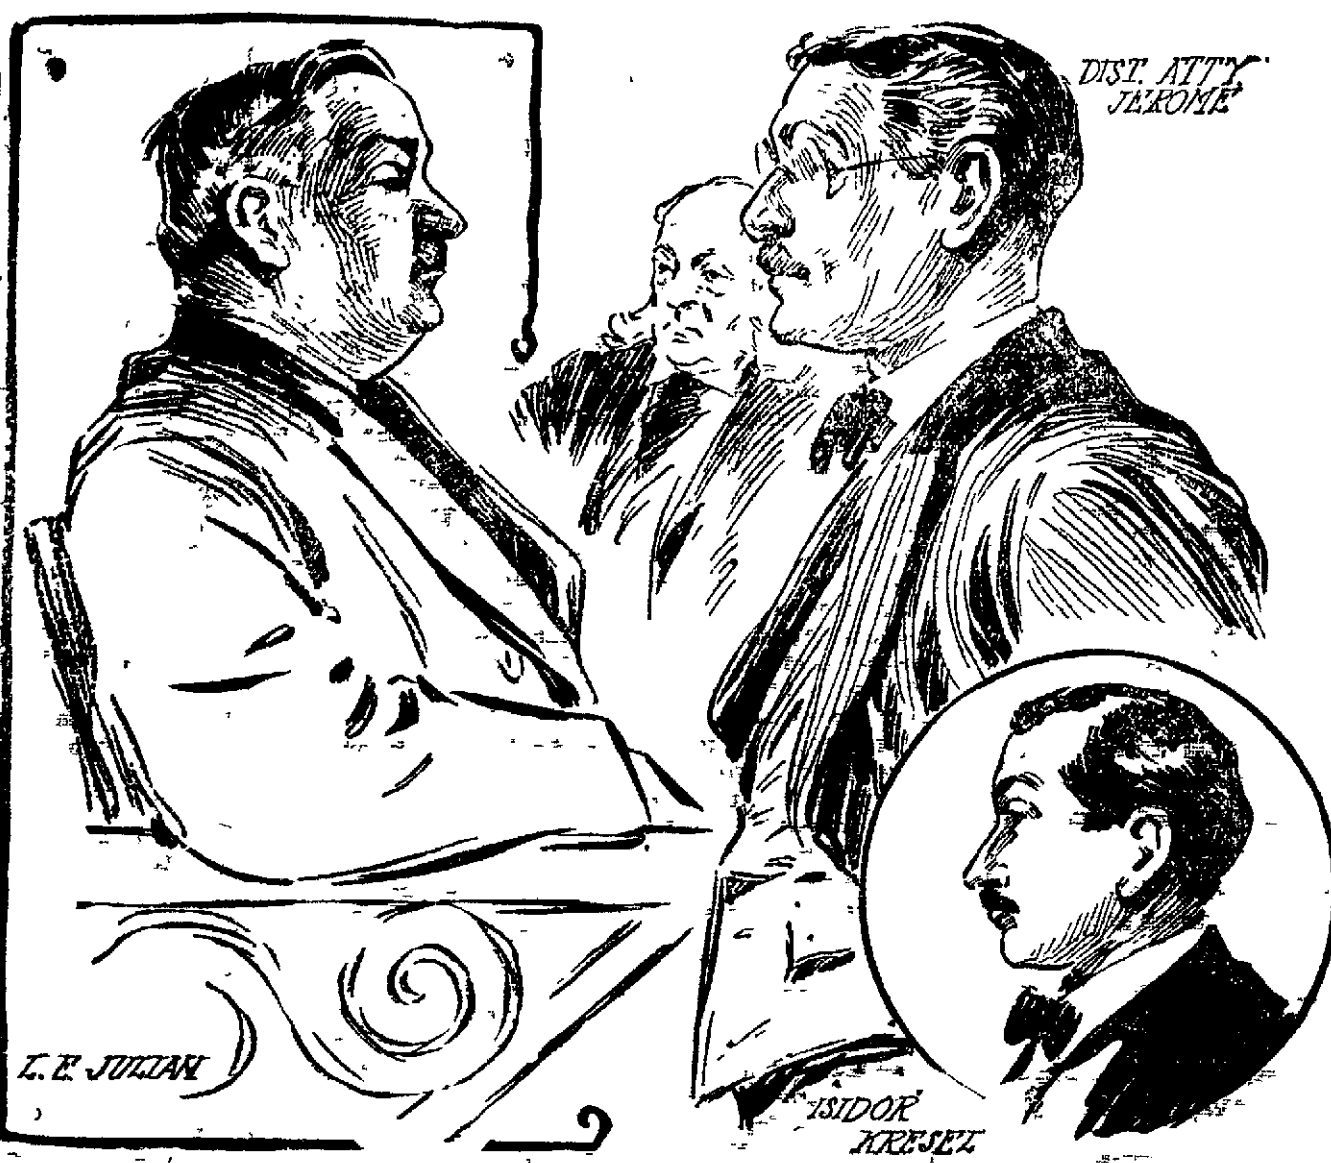

LEWIS TAKES CHARGE

Breach Between Two Leaders of Mine Workers Widening

Operators Show No Intention of Meeting or Treating With Men.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 31.—That every coal mine in the Pittsburg district, with its immense annual output of 57,000,000 bituminous tons, will be closed down at midnight is the assertion made by every operator, who met in a hard clash with the miners. The miners express themselves as willing to accept several concessions but they claim these have been denied.

WITNESS GIVES SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY

New York, March 31.—Louis E. Julian, one of the principal witnesses called by the counsel for the King, today gave the most sensational testimony that has been heard since the inquiry began.

Julian's story was to the effect that before Tammany Hall gave Judge Vernon M. Davis his nomination to the supreme court bench in 1902, the Metropolitan Street Railway company had been called upon to contribute $15,000 of the $30,000 which, Julian said, he heard was the amount that year of the political as-essment that had to be paid for "the honor." Until that time Mr. Davis had been one of the trail lawyers who frequently appeared as counsel for the Metropolitan. It is before him, sitting as a supreme court judge, that a suit is now pending for the dissolution of the street railway company's charter.

TAFT SCORED AT DOLLAR DINNER BY MR. BRYAN

Kansas City, March 31.—William Bryan and Judson Harmon were the principal speakers at the dollar dinner of the Young Men's Democratic club in the auditorium here Monday night. Mr. Bryan scored Taft as the Republican candidate, saying in part: "If in the coming campaign the Republicans have an ambiguous platform, filled with glittering generalities and fragrant with bouquets thrown at the Republican party, a Republican president elected upon it would be as powerless as the present president has been. I say powerless—for what has the president succeeded in doing?"

"There are more trusts today than there were when he entered the office. He has not succeeded in putting a trust magnate in the penitentiary, and the only large fine that has been imposed has aroused more criticism than commendation among Republican leaders."

"He has not secured any tariff reform. He has not secured the enactment of the necessary labor legislation. He has not secured an income tax, and the Republican senators forced him into a compromise on the railroad question."

"But even a good platform would be worthless without a candidate who embodied the spirit of the platform. And what candidate have they?"

"If the president had picked out Senator La Follette, a real reformer, he could have compelled the confidence of reform Republicans. Senator La Follette has a record as a reformer; he has fought corporate domination in his own state for a decade."

"The president has picked out Secretary Taft and given him the support of the administration. He has no record as a reformer, and his speeches do not indicate a definite purpose or a courageous program.

"What does Secretary Taft stand for? What does he denounce as wrong? He tells us that he would not exterminate them, but simply regulate them. What does he propose on the tariff question? Revision—but not until after the election."

"What reform does Secretary Taft propose for the benefit of labor? The laboring men insist that they are entitled to trial by jury, but Secretary Taft went all the way to Oklahoma to find fault with this provision in the Oklahoma constitution."

"What relief does Secretary Taft propose to give us from the burdens which imperialism has imposed upon the country? Our army is more than twice as large as it was in 1896, and we are still denying the Philippine islands the doctrine set forth in the Declaration of Independence—that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed."

"Why?"

"What is Secretary Taft going to do on the railroad question?"

"In one speech he took occasion to explain that the president was not responsible for rate reductions; this would indicate that Secretary Taft does not favor rate reduction."

"What chance of reform is there at the hands of Republican leaders who take the side of corporations against the people and act upon the theory that inducements must be held out to capital, no matter how great the burdens imposed upon the producers of wealth? There is no doubt that the masses of the people, Republican and Democratic, are in favor of reform. If we can only convince the voters that the Democratic party will be true to reform victory is assured, and the only way in which we can convince the public that we honestly desire to

WOULD PUT SCREWS ON VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT

Washington, March 31.—In order to make President Castro of Venezuela abandon his conceit that he can with impunity defy the United States and to induce him to submit to arbitration claims of American citizens whom he has injured, the following means, it is understood, will be resorted to by Congress: Put prohibitive rates of duty on Venezuelan coffee, ninety per cent of which comes to the United States and which constitutes half of the total export of that country; prohibit importation of asphalt from Venezuela; give the President power to use such other means as he sees fit, with use of armed force as the last resort.

The Venezuelan correspondence was sent to congress today by Secretary Root with comments by American investigators indicating that in their opinion Castro was wrong in all his acts involving American interests in Venezuela.

Will be Sent to Germany to Replace Tower

EXAGGERATED RUMORS

Gave Erroneous Impression of the Matter on the Question

Diplomatic Posts are Not for Wealthy Men Alone Says President.

Washington, March 31.—The nomination of David Jayne Hill, to be ambassador to Germany, was sent to the Senate by the President this afternoon. The President also nominated as ministers Arthur M. Beaupre of Illinois, to Netherlands and Luxembourg, and Spencer F. Eddy of Illinois to the Argentine Republic.

Washington, March 31.—It was announced at the White House today that the resignation of Charlemagne Tower, United States ambassador at Berlin, has been received, to take effect June 1. The President has accepted the resignation and will send the nomination of David Jayne Hill for the post to the senate this afternoon.

Washington, March 31.—With a view to bringing to a close the gossip connected with the reported disapproval in Berlin of the appointment of Dr. David Jayne Hill as ambassador and terminating the incident, the German ambassador called at the White House last night by appointment to see President Roosevelt and Secretary Root. At the conclusion of the conference the following statement was given out:

"In addition to the communication already made public from the German foreign office, the German ambassador has also conveyed to the American government the assurances of the emperor that there has never been any change in his attitude toward Mr. Hill and his cordial willingness to welcome Mr. Hill to Berlin. The emperor's favorable opinion of Mr. Hill was communicated to the Washington administration last November, and his attitude has never changed since."

"Apparently some remarks in a casual conversation have been distorted by gossip and exaggerated by rumors as to give a total erroneous impression of the whole matter on the question."

"The two governments have never shared this misunderstanding. The design of the president and the secretary of state in choosing Mr. Hill was to choose the man who, of all

COAL STRIKE

Would Affect Local Conditions and Railroads Would Suffer During the Tie-Up.

The B. and O. railroad officials are alarmed at the prospect of a tie-up, brought about by the strike of the miners in the Ohio coal fields. Local officials, while fully appreciating the enormity of the strike and the possibilities of loss to the roads by its being prolonged, express a belief that an early settlement will be reached. However, they realize that a reduction in the road's business, if of any great extent, means a reduction in the amount of labor employed by the roads, at least during the tie-up.

AMUSEMENTS

W. B. PATTON.

W. B. Patton, the peculiar comedian, who has been so popular with our theatre-goers since his first appearance here, will be seen this season in his newest Western play, "The Slow Poke." Mr. Patton is one of the few high class comedians capable of writing his own plays. His first real success was "The Minister's Son." He appeared in the title role of this play over one thousand times, from coast to coast, and has since written "The Little Homestead," "A Sly Old Fox," "Royal Rags," "The Last Rose of Summer," "When We Were Friends," and "The Slow Poke." The engagement here is announced for April.

MRS. FISKE.

The cast supporting Mrs. Fiske in "Rosmersholm," at the Auditorium, Tuesday evening, April 7, will be the same that acted this play with her in New York. Mrs. Fiske's company, and, in fact, all those under the management of Harrison Grey Fiske, are famous for their efficiency and for the balance and harmony of their performances. Among the players who have been added this year are Bruce McRae, Fuller Mellich, Albert Bruning and Florence Montgomery.

The Campbells, Who Scored a Big Hit at the Orphium.

lives in the presence of her audience and her strong, sweet toned voice and pure, perfect English are charming and delightful in the extreme. The Campbells, in a comedy musical and talking act, made an instantaneous hit. The act is nicely arranged with enough of novelty in it to keep the audience alert and sufficient comedy to get the laughs. The Ozons, with their juggling, are about the best that have appeared here. The act is new and novel from start to finish, the work of the two going with a hurrah. All the tricks are clean cut and cleverly executed, while the comedy is well placed throughout. The finish was well rewarded with liberal applause. John Goss could easily be styled the "astounding bone player," after the manner in which he performed last evening, the ease and grace with which he rattled the bones while undressing and passing through a hoop were little short of marvelous.

One Independent View.
"For my part," said Mrs. Lapsing, with strong feeling, "I think a man that abuses his horse should be incarcerated at once. We ought to exercise the utmost obsequiousness to dumb brutes."

GETTING READY FOR ASSESSORS

AUDITOR WRIGHT MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR THEIR INSTRUCTIONS.

Commissioners Open Bids for Raccoon Creek Bridge—General Court News.

The time for the annual rounds of the assessors of the county is fast approaching. Auditor J. N. Wright is making preparations for the instruction of the assessors. The law says they shall commence their work on the second Monday in April, and finish by the third Monday in May. The second Monday in April comes on April 13. Although the date is considered unlucky, the auditor does not believe in signs.

This year the assessors will not have to make the enumeration of the population of the county. There will not be as much this year as there was last year. There will be a number of new assessors, on account of the election last fall. Last year the assessors held over and there were no changes made. Last fall the assessors were elected for two years.

It is necessary to give the assessors minute instructions each year, so they will know how to assess property and what to put on the books for collection and what not to put on. There is always a lot of trouble for the assessors and the auditor each year after the assessors have made their rounds. Mistakes are often made. A great many of the property owners this year will be wiser when it comes to the matter of paying taxes on dogs. The law provides that where a tenant owns a dog the property owner is responsible for the payment of taxes on the dog. Many owners of property had to pay taxes on dogs owned by tenants. This year many contracts have been made whereby the tenants pay the dog tax to the landlords and they in turn pay the tax.

Partition Suit.

Harry J. Wilson, by his attorney, Robbins Hunter, has commenced a friendly suit in the probate court against Harry C. Wilson, Rosa C. Wright, Raymond F. Wilson, Charles Wilson Jr., Arthur Wilson and Paul Wilson, minors under 14 years, and Laura E. Wilson and the Johnstown Building Association, for partition of property in Newark.

Bids for Raccoon Bridge.
At a meeting of the county commissioners, bids for the construction of the bridge over Raccoon Creek on Church street, were opened and were as follows: Cleveland Bridge Co., $14,698; Riverside Bridge Co., $14,597; G. W. Lane & Son, $14,830; J. A. Swingle & Co., bid on concrete, etc.; Corning Engineering Co., $15,671; F. M. Maxwell & Co., $15,270; Capital Construction Co., $16,000; Penn Bridge Co., $15,000; Wyncoop & Gormerley, $13,750; Oregon Bridge Co., $13,277; F. J. McCain Construction Co., $15,500; Hugh DeBord, bid on superstructure; Brackett Bridge Co., $13,889; E. J. Smith, $11,940; Bellefontaine Bridge Co., $13,900.

Correction.

A transcript from the criminal docket of Justice W. F. Holton, in the case of the State of Ohio vs. M. Spicer, charged with assault, was filed with the clerk of the court. By mistake the charge against Mr. Spicer read intoxication. While everybody knows Mr. Spicer is not in the habit of getting intoxicated, it is only right that the mistake should be corrected. Mr. Spicer is one of Newark's most reputable citizens.

Assessors Get Raise.

Auditor J. N. Wright has received word from State Auditor Guilbert that the salaries of assessors have been increased from $2 to $3 per day, to take effect at once. This will be good news to the assessors throughout Licking county.

Circuit Court.

The judges of the circuit court are engaged in hearing the case of Frank Myers vs. Frank Vermillion et al. The suit is brought asking an injunction to restrain the defendants from cutting certain channels or ditches in a road in Hopewell township. Plaintiff says that to construct the ditches contemplated will cause the water to collect on his lands in large quantities and, by reason of close proximity to his residence, will injure the health of his family. He says that there is no necessity for doing the work, and if permitted to be done, it will work irreparable damage to him.

FOR OLD FOLKS

Simple Home Mixture Relieves Kidney or Bladder Troubles and Rheumatism.

The great majority of men and women at the age of 50 years begin to feel the first signs of advancing age in some form of kidney trouble and bladder weakness. Few are entirely free from that tortuous disease, rheumatism, which is not a disease in itself, but a symptom of deranged function of the kidneys which have become clogged and sluggish, failing in their duty of sifting and straining the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, permitting it to remain and decompose, settling about the joints and muscles, causing intense pain and suffering.

The bladder, however, causes the old folks the most annoyance, especially at night and early morning.

A noted authority in a recent article stated that he has wonderful success with the old-time "vegetable treatment." He states: "Of sixteen cases of bladder troubles and rheumatism which have been treated with this treatment only one very complicated case failed to fully yield to its remarkable influence. It is the most harmless treatment I have ever found to clean the system of rheumatic poisons; remove irritation of the bladder and relieve urinary difficulties of the old people. It is a true vitalizing tonic to the entire kidney and urinary structure, reinvigorating the entire system."

What he terms "old vegetable treatment" consists of the following simple prescription, the ingredients which can be obtained from any good pharmacy at small cost: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce. Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and upon going to bed, also drink plenty of water. This prescription though simple, is always effective in the diseases and afflictions of the kidneys and bladder.

Cooper's Theories Are Being Rapidly Accepted by Eastern People.

L. T. Cooper, whose theory that the human stomach is the cause of most ill health, and who created a furore in Chicago, St. Louis and other western cities, is meeting with the same remarkable success with his medicine throughout the east. Cooper has convinced an immense number of people that his theory is sound and his medicine will do what he claims. Perhaps the most interesting features of the discussion this young man is causing, are the statements made by responsible people who have taken his medicines and have become enthusiastic converts to his beliefs. Among statements of this character, the following, by Mr. August Whitmer, 1049 Rockwell Court, Chicago, is characteristic of the widespread faith in Cooper, which has grown up in a comparatively short time. Mr. Whitmer says: "I wouldn't take $1,000 and be in the condition I was three weeks ago. I was practically an invalid for fourteen years and think I had about all of the diseases known. My stomach was weak, and at times I would have an enormous appetite, and then again none at all. Pie and cake made me sick, and I almost always had a sickening feeling in my stomach. I was nervous, and for weeks at a time could not sleep, and then again could sleep eighteen hours at a stretch. Sleep, however, seemed to do me no good, and I would awake tired and more exhausted than when I went to bed. "I was constipated, had pains in my back, and flutterings and pains in my heart. I was unable to work with any regularity, and took no interest in anything. I tried all kinds of medicines and doctors, but none benefited me. I had no energy and no ambition, and had about concluded to give up when the Cooper medicine was recommended. Thanks to it, my health seems completely restored and I feel like a new man." Cooper medicines have created the greatest sensation of anything of the kind ever before introduced. We sell them, and will be glad to explain the nature of them to our callers. City Drug Store.

Wall Paper Talk No. 26.

Your Ideas

When you commence to decorate your home—start with one idea. Don't take so many rolls of paper and so many pots of paint and make one room red because another is green, etc. If you do you'll surely get yourself in a maze. For instance, if your idea is to make your decoration unique—something different and out of the ordinary, if you attain this you derive a great amount of pleasure.

Or suppose you aim at simplicity, the design limited to straight lines, flat curves, and the scheme of color to two or three tints of either related or harmoniously contrasting colors.

Or, should brightness and joyousness be your idea, take the freshest hues of nature to charm away the cares and sorrows that will thrust themselves into modern existence. Some prefer variety to suit the varying moods of temperament—a warm note in the hall and living room to welcome and entertain friends; a quiet atmosphere in the den to rest after the day's haste and to calmly plan for the morrow; a soothing feeling in the bedroom where sickness may come uninvited, but may remain longer if irritating colors and designs thoughtlessly arranged encourage it.

No matter what your fancy may dictate, we have the colors and designs to satisfy it.

Come in and look them over. Yours for correct wall coverings.

FIGHTER OF GRAFTERS

Career of G. L. Lilley, Submarine Boat Investigation Starter.

EARLY LIFE ONE OF HARDSHIP

Made Spectacular Entry into Politics. Quick to Seize Graft and Give it Battle—Opposed Free Seed Abuse. Downed Paper Trust.

The farm of his father, John Leavens Lilley, near Oxford, Mass., was the place, and Aug. 3, 1859, was the date of the birth of George Leavens Lilley, the member of the United States house of representatives from Connecticut whose insistence for a full investigation into the submarine boat scandal has attracted attention all over the United States.

His entire boyhood life was one of hardship and toil, not play. While still under the age of ten he had to arise at 3 o'clock in the morning to cover a milk route and get through with it in time to attend the country school at 9 o'clock. He was usually so tired on reaching school that he would be found fast asleep at his desk on the conclusion of the Lord's Prayer, with which the school sessions were opened, says the New York World. In spite of his handicap he reached the head of his classes.

When he was fourteen his parents moved into Oxford, leaving him behind to run his uncle's farm. The Lileys next went to Middleboro, and there the boy peddled meat from a cart for his father, who occasionally sent him to Boston to buy supplies. On one of these trips the lad, who was not eighteen, learned that there was a shortage of potatoes in New England and that there was an abundance of them in Nova Scotia. He induced a Boston merchant whom he knew to lend him $2,000, with which he went to Nova Scotia, chartered a schooner and brought a cargo of potatoes to Boston, where he sold them at a handsome profit.

Three years later he was a salesman, with two rival concerns offering him a partnership. One of these partnerships resulted in the establishment in Waterbury, Conn., of the firm of Lilly, Swift & Co. His entry into politics in 1900 was spectacular. He entered a town meeting at Waterbury which was packed with adherents of a controlling ring of grafters and denounced its extravagance. A road repairing contract was about to be awarded for $35,000, and he offered to do the work and live up to all its specifications for $3,500. He was not only howled down, but was threatened with personal violence.

That experience determined his future course in life. He announced himself as a Republican candidate for the legislature and as a foe to all grafters, large or small. He was overwhelmingly elected and made good from the day of his election. He served a second term and was then sent to congress, where before he was hardly warm in his chair he defeated an attempt to extend an electric light company's franchise in Hawaii upon terms that were oppressive to consumers. It was a hard fight, for he was up against seasoned congressmen, but he won out.

His fight in the case of free seed distribution has not yet been forgotten. Members of congress, with an eye to the support of the farmers, encouraged it until it became the practice for the members to flood the rural parts of their districts not with rare and valuable seeds, but with old and common trash, because the other kind could not be supplied in "political" quantities.

To attack this abuse on the floor of the house was to subject oneself to being misunderstood as unfriendly to the cause of agriculture, but with his usual courage Mr. Lilley rose on the floor and denounced the practice—not the distribution of rare and valuable seeds, but the wholesale draft on the agricultural department for cheap seeds for purely political ends. He was told he would lose the "farmer vote" in Connecticut, but he believed the farmers too intelligent to misunderstand, and anyway he was attacking a wrong, and that was the first thing to be thought of. He mustered only three votes for his resolution to cut out the practice, which showed a contrasting lack of courage among the other members. He tried it again at the succeeding session and was again defeated, although he had increased his number of supporters from three to a hundred.

In the fall of 1904 Mr. Lilley introduced the resolution that eventually resulted in the trial and conviction of the General Paper company, popularly known as the paper trust, and the dissolving of the combine, which had artificially advanced the price of print paper to the newspapers of the country. These results were due almost wholly to the Connecticut congressman, who personally spurred the judiciary committee of the house and afterward the legal department of the government to action.

"First Aid" Idea For Railroads.

Besides the customary ax and crowbar passengers have seen for years in a glass case in railroad coaches. Dr. Inslee H. Berry urged the other day at the annual meeting in New York of the Society For Instruction in First Aid to the Injured that each train leaving New York city should be compelled to carry one kit containing bandages, whisky, splints, plaster, sterilized cotton, etc., for use in case of accident or sickness. He said hundreds of trainmen had been graduated from the society and consequently knew how to use such supplies to the best advantage.

CAMPBELL'S ENDORSEMENT FOR U. S. SENATOR BY THE STATE CONVENTION

It is in evidence that in a large majority of the counties the Democratic conventions to select delegates to the State Convention will endorse Hon. James E. Campbell for United States Senator. The counties where this action is taken are in favor of the endorsement of ex-Governor Campbell's candidacy by the coming Democratic State Convention.

The endorsement of candidates for United States Senators by State Conventions has become a sentiment all over the country and the Ohio Democrats established a precedent when Hon. John H. Clark was endorsed at the State Convention of 1903.

Next to William Jennings Bryan no man in all Ohio of either party has a stronger hold upon the hearts of the people than has ex-Governor Campbell, and his endorsement for Senator by the coming State Convention will add a tower of strength to the entire Democratic State ticket.

Democrats of the State who know and appreciate this fact will deprecate any unwise proposition to avoid by any device this endorsement by the State Convention. And it is certain that any such project by politicians will be condemned by the rank and file of the party.

A FOOLISH PROPOSITION

(Dayton News.)

The proposition for the Democrats to hold a primary election this fall upon the same day that the regular election is held, in order to enable Democratic voters to express a choice for United States senator, is rank foolishness. The Democrats of this state are heartily in favor of naming United States senators by popular vote, of course, and that has prompted a few thoughtless persons to propose a Democratic primary this fall.

In the first place, the expense of the primary would have to be paid by the candidate for the senate. It could not be held under the state laws, because the state laws do not provide for a primary election for nominating United States senators. The candidates themselves would have to pay all expenses, and presuming that there would be three candidates, it would mean that each candidate would be assessed something like fifty thousand dollars. Any man who can afford to pay that much money for a chance to secure a nomination, even before it is known whether he stands any chance of election, has no business being sent to the senate.

After several days of suspense over the many rumors that the German Kaiser would not accept Dr. Hill as the Ambassador to Berlin, the matter seems to have been diplomatically adjusted. By the Kaiser's magnanimity in the premises all objections to Dr. Hill have been removed and his friend Teddy in the White House has been relieved of any further embarrassment. Time was that when the President of the United States sent his ambassadors to European capitals no objections were ever thought of and they were always received without question. But that was before the United States became a "world power."

OLD PEOPLE OF NEWARK NEED VINOL

It Strengthens and Vitalizes.

With old age comes feebleness and loss of power; the organs act more slowly and less effectively; the blood is thin, sluggish and watery; digestion is weak and food is not assimilated as it used to be.

Vinol repairs worn tissues and checks the natural decline. It tones up the digestive organs, aids assimilation, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body. In this natural manner Vinol replaces weakness with strength.

Vinol is not a patent medicine but a delicious cod liver preparation which contains all the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil, in a concentrated form, taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we offer to return money if it fails to benefit. Frank D. Hall, Druggist, Newark, O.

CONFIDENCE

The Base of Business Credit—Good Credit is the Base of Prosperity.

In order to have prosperity we must have confidence in ourselves, our neighbors and our national life. We must do something substantial and urge others to do likewise. We cannot afford to wait for something to turn up. There is always something waiting the progressive man of today. We must avail ourselves of the opportunities as they present themselves.

In another ten days the lots in the Flory Homestead Addition will be ready for sale. To those who want homes, and to those who want to invest in good residence property, this is the only available down town property where you can buy and build as you would like.

See our salesman, F. H. Keenen, and make your arrangements as the desirable location of these lots will make them sell rapidly.

FROM ALL OVER STATE

BAPTIST MINISTERS COME TO ATTEND CONFERENCE AND RETREAT.

Attendance Larger Than Last Year—
Splendid Program Will Be Carried Out During Sessions.

Graenville, March 31.—The much anticipated Baptist Ministerial Conference of Ohio opened here Monday afternoon in Cleveland Hall with an attendance of over 100 ministers from all parts of the state. Rev. F. F. Briggs of Middletown, owing to recent illness, was unable to take part on the program, and Dr. E. W. Hunt combined the devotional with the greeting to which he had been assigned. The address of Dr. Hunt and the response of Dr. H. F. Stillwell, of Cleveland, president of the Conference, gave an admirable keynote for the three days' meeting, which, from the beginning, moved on a high plane.

The closing address of the afternoon, by Prof. John M. Strong of the Rochester Theological Seminary, was a beautiful and inspiring presentation of the privilege and beauty of prayer, and none who heard it can ever forget it.

At the evening session, which was held in the Baptist church, there was a large congregation. The opening sermon was delivered by the Rev. C. F. Holden of Martin's Ferry, and was on the subject of "Exposition and Devotion," and the Rev. J. E. Mills of Marietta, vice president of the Conference, presided.

At the evening session a beautiful selection was rendered by the choir with an obligato solo by Miss Emily Farrar.

The sermon of the evening was by Dr. Thomas Trotter of the Ashland Avenue church of Toledo. It was one of the strongest sermons ever heard in Granville, and produced a profound impression. It was a wonderful address, thrilling with energy and enthusiasm, and all who heard it were loud in their praises of it.

Many more ministers have arrived since Monday and every car is bringing them in. The attendance now is larger than it was last year. The program being carried out Tuesday is as follows:

8:45 a. m. Exposition and Devotion.

9:30 a. m. Symposium, "Making the Proclamation Effective."

"The Study and Pulpit"—Dr. George B. Cutten, Columbus.

"The Rhetorical Element"—Prof. C. L. Williams.

Discussion opened by Dr. Howard P. Whidden, Dayton.

11:00 a. m. Pastoral Experience Conference and Question Box.

12:00 m. Adjourn.

1:30 p. m. Exposition and Devotion—Rev. Albert Ehrigott, Cleveland.

2:15 p. m. Symposium, "Elements Conditioning the Proclamation."

"How far Should Popular Subjects be Used."

"What Fundamental Truths Must be Assumed?"—Rev. C. H. Pendleton of Youngstown.

"The Personal Element"—Rev. G. R. Robbins, D. D., Cincinnati.

3:30 p. m. Pastoral Experience Conference and Question Box—Conducted by Dr. G. E. Leonard of Newark.

4:30 p. m. Adjourn.

7:00 p. m. Exposition and Devotional Service—Dr. W. A. Waldo, Cleveland.

Special Music.

8:00 p. m. Sermon—Rev. W. B. Wallace, D. D., Cleveland.

9:00 p. m. Adjourn.

IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, March 31.—At the conference of iron and steel manufacturers held in New York last week, a general feeling of optimism prevailed, and the ruling quotations on all commodities were reaffirmed. This action was not unexpected, in view of the increasing tonnage of finished materials, and is being well received by the trade. The tonnage booked by the Steel Corporation since January 1 has shown a monthly increase of 25 per cent, and from present indications the same improvement will be shown this month. The Eastern Pig Iron Association has again decided to make no change in quotations, and additional stacks will be blown out if necessary to maintain production and consumption on a level. Eastern bar iron interests, at a meeting held last week, also decided against a change of prices, although operating at only 40 per cent capacity.

Increased activity is noted in sheets, tin plate and wire products. The American Tin and Sheet Plate Co., is operating 83 of its 180 sheet mills, and 75 per cent of its tin plate capacity, as compared with 71 per cent a week ago. The tonnage booked by the leading wire interest thus far this month is only 10 per cent less than that closed during the same period a year ago.

Purchases of diversified foundry interests in the east have given the market more than accustomed activity in that section. An order for 4,000 tons of southern iron has been placed by a cast iron pipe plant, and one inquiry for 4,500 tons is pending. In the central west, concessions from the agreed price of $17 continues to be reported, and southern furnace operators are asking $12 for No. 2 for early shipment and are holding at $13 for second half. In the south, operations among pig iron producers, as compared with Dec. 1, are practically unchanged, 30 of the 35 furnaces still being idle. Rail sales include 24,000 tons, placed by the New York Central with the Lackawanna Steel Co.

ONE CERTAINTY

Some Newark People Fully Realize It Now.

When the back aches from kidney ills. When urinary troubles annoy you, There's a certain way to find relief; A sure way to be cured.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do it. Newark people endorse this claim.

John W. Lippincott, 127 No. Eleventh street, Newark, Ohio, says: "I suffered from rheumatism for a long times and often had such severe pains across my loins that I could not move until the attacks passed off. There was a constant, dull aching across the small of my back and if I moved quickly or brought any strain on the muscles of my back, I was rewarded with sharp knife-like twinges throughout my body. My back became very weak and the least exertion completely exhausted me. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box at Crayton's drug store, started using them and they gave me prompt relief. I was so encouraged that I continued their use until entirely free from my trouble." (From statement given November 7, 1904.)

RESULTS TELL.

On Nov. 26, 1907, Mr. Lippincott said: "I cheerfully confirm my former recommendation of Doan's Kidney Pills as the benefit I obtained from their use has remained permanent. I have never been in better health than at the present time and owe my good condition to Doan's Kidney Pills."

The Born Steel Range

THIS remarkable range is known the world over for its wonderful cooking and baking qualities and is the range selected by careful thinking housewives. These are just a few of the great features of this great range:

Adjustable flue strip—making it possible to use any kind of fuel.
Flue reservoir next to the fire—you can have hot water when you want it.
Direct damper operated from the front—easy to reach—and right where it should be.

Patent removable, non-warping, oven bottom—always smooth and level.
A kicker feed door—which can be opened or closed by a slight pressure of the foot—you don't have to burn your fingers.

ⓈThe Born Steel Range has many more distinctive strong points that we will be glad to show you—if you will give us the chance. ⓈThe first steel range in the world was built by Born over a quarter of a century ago. Each year the range has improved, and is today the most successful stove for sale anywhere—by anyone. KING'S DAUGHTERS

COMPLETE ARRANGEMENTS FOR SUPPORT OF A DISTRICT NURSE.

Easter Saturday, April 18, Has Been Chosen as "Tag Day," and Appeal Will Be Made to Public.

On Monday evening plans were completed for the formation of a chapter of the King's Daughters, whose object shall be to introduce and support the work of the district nurse in the city. The charitable interests of the King's Daughters in Newark have been too broad to need comment, but need has long been felt of a more thorough and efficient service than could be rendered by untrained workers.

The three circles comprising the new organization—the Whatsoever, Sunshine and Brightening circles—are oldest in the city in point of time their activity in miscellaneous charities extending back to 1886, when the first organization was effected. Their purpose now is not to discontinue their former line of work, but to supplement it by putting into the field a thoroughly trained worker, who shall come equipped for her work by years of professional and sociological training.

The district nurse must be a graduate of some reputable hospital, and must have made additional preparation for the peculiar phases of her work, which is to be done under the direction of and in co-operation with the physicians of the city. She is to answer any call made upon her by a reputable physician, whether compensation can be offered for her services or not.

The control of the new organization is vested in a board of nine managers—from the Whatsoever circle, Mrs. B. M. East, Mrs. C. F. Legge, Miss Minnie Williams; Sunshine circle, Miss Lucy Connel, Mrs. George Lesler, Miss Clara MacDonald; Brightening circle, Misses Anna Davis, Jane Irwin and Helen Crane. The board have elected as their officers: Mrs. East, chairman; Miss Davis, secretary; Mrs. Lesler, treasurer. Easter Saturday, April 18, has been chosen as "Tag Day," when a general appeal will be made to the public for assistance in carrying out this needed work. The various committees are already busily at work, and there is an earnest hope of generous response to the request for general co-operation.

MAY PARTICIPATE IN ARMY MANEUVERS

There are now every indication that the Ohio National Guard will be able to participate in the United States army maneuvers at Camp Harrison, Ind., next summer. This is the word Adj. Gen. A. B. Critchfield brings back from Washington, where he went in the interest of the enabling appropriation. This item had been stricken from the appropriation bill in the lower house of congress, lacking one vote to keep it in the bill. The war department, presided over by Secretary Taft, wants it, and Senator Foraker has pledged his support, so the chances for the senate restoring this item to the bill seem good. The Guard of other states will benefit similarly.

DEAN'S HOME

NEARING COMPLETION AT GRANVILLE, AND IS ALREADY UNDER ROOF.

Stock Sale a Big Success, Many Buyers Being Present—All the News of the College Town.

Granville, March 31.—The new home for the dean of Doane academy Dr. R. H. Hundley, which is being built by the university adjoining the president's house, on the hill, is already under roof, and is rapidly being pushed to completion. The house now occupied by Dr. Hundley will be occupied by Prof. C. W. Chamberlin, who has purchased the property of Mr. John H. Sample.

Prof. W. A. Chamberlin who is spending the vacation at home after his work in the University of Chicago, is moving into his own property, next door north of his present residence on Burg street, and Mrs. Philip Smith and daughter, Miss Mable Butterfield, who have been occupying the house owned by Prof. Chamberlin, will move into the house vacated by the professor.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams of Bucyrus, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for the past week, have returned home.

The big stock sale of Case & Robinson, at their new barn, just east of Granger street, Monday, was one of the largest ever held in Granville. Buyers were present in large numbers from Newark and all the surrounding country, and many sales were made. These stock sales will be a permanent thing in Granville and will

A SURGICAL OPERATION

If there is any one thing that a woman dreads more than another it is a surgical operation.

We can state without fear of a contradiction that there are hundreds, yes, thousands, of operations performed upon women in our hospitals which are entirely unnecessary and many have been avoided by LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

For proof of this statement read the following letters.

Mrs. Barbara Base, of Kingman, Kansas, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For eight years I suffered from the most severe form of female troubles and was told that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham for advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has saved my life and made me a well woman."

Mrs. Arthur R. House, of Church Road, Moorestown, N. J., writes:

"I feel it is my duty to let people know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female troubles, and last March my physician decided that an operation was necessary. My husband objected, and urged me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to-day I am well and strong."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, and backache.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

be the means of doing much good for the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harding, prominent farming people of Morrow county, who have been here for a few days, visiting friends and relatives, returned home Monday.

Thomas Laughery of Toledo, who has been in the east for some days on business, stopped over in the village a few hours Monday on his way home. Wm. Edwards of Bowling Green was in the village Monday in attendance at the big stock sale of Case & Robinson.

Judge Harvey Keeler of the Common Pleas court of Cleveland, who came down to Granville to attend the Sigma Chi banquet a week ago Saturday night, has been so charmed with his visit among the old scenes of his student days, that he has prolonged his visit over two Sundays. He finds many old friends who are glad to welcome and give the glad hand to the genial jurist.

Thomas Holliday, a prominent attorney of Toledo, who has been in Columbus for several days transacting business, spent several hours with old time friends in Granville Monday.

Miss Ray Gilpatrick, who is one of the faculty of Steele High school, Dayton, which is one of the largest high schools in the west, is spending the spring vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Gilpatrick on College Hill.

DIRECTORS

Elect Monday Evening by Buckeye Lake Building Co.—Improvements Planned.

The annual meeting of the Buckeye Building company was held Monday in Columbus and resulted in the election of the old board of directors. The directors will meet at an early date, when it is planned to elect the same officers for the ensuing year. The directorate will then stand as follows:

President, Fred Jaeger, Columbus; vice president, Charles L. Flory, Newark; secretary-treasurer, Charles D. Lynch, Columbus; Albert Corrodi, Columbus; Fred G. Speer, Newark; G. A. Sackett, Columbus; L. A. Sackett, Columbus.

During the meeting plans were discussed for the erection of a pavilion in front of the boat house of the Buckeye Lake Yacht club, and also for the equipping of more boat stalls.

1788—APRIL 7TH—1908.

It is desired by the Woman's Centennial Association of Marietta that every public school in the state take some means of celebrating the founding of Marietta in 1788 April 7, one week from today, will be the 120th anniversary of the founding of Ohio's pioneer city.

How many know that on April 7, 1788, forty-eight brave and sturdy pioneers, after a long and perilous journey from New England over the Allegheny mountains in wagons, and then down the Ohio river from what is now Pittsburg, Pa., in a crude flat-boat named the "Mayflower" landed at the mouth of the Muskingum river and made the first permanent settlement of the Northwest Territory, which comprises the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin?

These hardy pioneers christened their new home "Marietta," in honor of Marie Antoinette, France's beautiful queen.

It is the desire of the "Woman's Centennial Association of Marietta" to have every public school in the state take special notice of this date, in order to have the children learn something of the history and origin of their native state.

Tonsiline Cures Sore Throat

The throat is one of the most delicate parts of the body. It is also one of the most important, and should be given the best possible care.

The throat is the gateway to the body. The air we breathe, the food we eat, the liquids we drink, all pass through it. It is very easily affected by cold, strain, exposure, etc., and Sore Throat is therefore one of our most common ailments. Strangely enough, it is also one of the most neglected.

Sore Throat is a very serious matter, for the whole system is in danger in consequence of it.

Every Sore Throat patient is a candidate for Tonsiline, Quinsy, Diphtheria and other serious or fatal diseases, all of which can positively be prevented by the timely cure of the Sore Throat by the use of TONSILINE.

If taken in time a dose or two will do it. TONSILINE is made to cure throat diseases and nothing else. It is the one remedy for this purpose sold largely in the United States. Every user endorses it; every physician, knowing its virtues, commends it.

The one most important thing to remember about TONSILINE is the fact that it really does cure Sore Throat.

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNMENT

NOT YET IN SIGHT AND BILLS KEEP ROLLING INTO THE HOPPER.

Foraker May Be Invited to Address Legislature—Proof That Prob. ing Hurts.

Columbus, O., March 31.—(Special)

—This being the thirteenth week of the present session of the general assembly it will be worth while to note carefully each day's proceedings so as to be able to determine Friday whether the thirteenth week was more unlucky than any of the rest. It may be so considered for this is the week the bulk of the people's money for the ensuing fiscal year is to run the gantlet of the house. After this general appropriation bill passes the house it must follow the usual routine, first going to the senate, then referred to the senate's finance committee, then reported after being examined, item by item and amended, before it can be passed by the senate. Should the bill be amended by the senate it must take the routine course for concurrence by the house, and as it invariably takes about three weeks to pass a general appropriation bill it can be readily understood how preposterous is all talk of rushing the session to final adjournment before the middle of April. The general impression still prevails that final adjournment will not be reached before May 4, the Monday preceding the state Democratic convention, despite the insistence of "the interests" that the legislature rush through the appropriation bill and go home. The session opened this week with 109 bills and numerous resolutions on the house and senate calendars, with many more ready to be reported by committees—and more bills introduced Monday evening.

In this connection it might be well here to state that the senate resolution to forbid the introduction of bills after April 10 is an absurdity of the crudest sort, and not worth the paper on which it is written. It might deceive new members who had not learned all the ins and outs of legislative procedure, but it is astonishing that such a proposition should bob up in a general assembly after the experience of a preceding session. The introduction of bills is a constitutional prerogative of each member of the legislature which can not be abridged or abrogated by resolution or by statute. As near as either branch can come to obviating that constitutional right is to adhere strictly to the order of business fixed by the rules for each day and to refuse unanimous consent when asked by any member for the purpose of introducing a bill out of the gular order. If both the senate and house were to adopt such an irregular resolution it would have no binding effect on any member who opposed it, and would impose only a moral obligation on those who favored it to abide by it.

The bills by Representative Schurr to abolish fraternities, sororities and other like societies among pupils of the public schools, and by Representative Reed to protect the lives of school children by adequate compulsory fire drill, are near the top of the house calendar, and are certain to be reached this week, probably Wednesday. It is not expected there will be any opposition to the Reed bill. The Schurr bill is almost certain to stir up a debate in favor of such fraternities as well as for the bill, which was suggested by brutal hazings at some of the high schools in the state, and especially the outcome of the cane-rush at the Ohio State university last fall.

Among other bills on the house calendar likely to be reached this week are the Wertz bill relating to a tax for the relief of indigent soldiers and sailors; the Burckhardt bill, authorizing a small tax for agricultural fairs; the Wilson bill, to pay salaries of county officers out of the general fund irrespective of the fees collected; the McFadden bill, to license medicine vendors; the Reed bill to further restrict the sale of narcotics; the Howard bill, to set aside a soldiers' plot in incorporated cemeteries; the Eley bill, to require the United States flag to be hoisted daily on county courthouses from sunrise till sunset; the Van Dusen bill, to create a state board of civil engineers; the Woods bill, to prohibit delivery of liquors or free dispensation of liquor by social clubs in dry territory; the Burckhardt anti-tipping bill; the Crist anti-speakeasy bill; the Emith bill for Sunday games by amateur teams; the Elson bill to regulate non-medical healing, and other bills of less importance to the general public.

The senate's calendar has about 40 bills, leading off with the Russell bill to abolish the office of infirmity director and enlarge the duties of the county commissioners by providing that infirmaries shall be conducted somewhat on the same plan as the county children's homes. This is a familiar "hack," which has been run over a rocky road at every session for years, with no better prospects this time than at former sessions. The defeat of the house bill to extend the terms of county commissioners portends the fate of all bills to make the terms of county officials uniform at four years, although that day will come, with a like provision for state officers, so that county elections may also be separated from general elections. And some day—perhaps—infirmary boards will be abolished.

Quite a number of bills already passed by the house will be reached in the senate this week, among them the Smith bill to pasteurize cat bites; the Chamberlain shipping-rate bill; the Crist bill for excess fare paid on trains, and the Burckhardt fire escape bill. The Spicer bill to repeal the Longworth act relating to votes on constitutional amendments is first on the calendar for Thursday, and also for the same day the following house bills: By Mr. Huey, fixing penalty for burglary; by Mr. Ritter, relating to use of false weights, and another by Mr. Ritter to forbid adulteration of paints; by Mr. McCord, raising the allowance for burying indigent soldiers; by Mr. Woodburn, two bills, to increase salary of state commissioner of soldiers' claims and to require a more accurate collection of names and addresses of surviving war veterans; by Mr. Hill, adding the badges of Elks to the law forbidding the unlawful use of badges and emblems of fraternal orders.

No change appears above the horizon of desuetude surrounding the primary election bills. The senate shows no back-down before the insolent and dictatorial attitude of the house. It is becoming well understood that if primary legislation fails this time the blame must rest entirely upon the Republican house, which has exhibited so much hide-bound partisanship this session. The announcement that Senator Foraker may be invited to address a joint session of the legislature on the pending primary election bills some time after Secretary Taft's visit here Thursday of this week caused consternation fits at Taft headquarters. There is no doubt that the Democrats would vote for a resolution extending such an invitation to the senator, but there are Republican members who would rather be home "seriously ill" than to be in their seats when such a resolution would come to a vote or when Foraker appeared to speak in response to such an invitation. Senator Foraker's views on primary elections are regarded quite as important as those of Congressman Theodore E. Burton of Cleveland, and largely so because they are so different. Senator Foraker and Mr. Burton disagreed regarding the plan for primaries before the Republican state convention at Dayton in 1906, and they were just as far apart now as they were then. The Taft people would rather have an epidemic of bubonic plague or some other deadly pestilence break out than to have Foraker visit Ohio just now, and they would be placed in a very embarrassing dilemma whether the Republican members of the legislature voted for or against extending such an invitation to the senator they have marked for "elimination."

Probing is still a source of worry to Republican bosses and their defenders in the legislature. Republican papers are trying to make it appear that it is all partisan and done for campaign purposes. For instance, a local Republican paper candidly declared in its Sunday issue that "These resolutions of Senator Howe have been a constant source of trouble in the senate," and that "The Republicans say the Democratic senators with their investigating committees are seeking campaign material to use this coming summer and fall." Senator Howe was also flouted by the same paper for his resolution requesting Auditor Guilbert for information about the state bureau of accounting in this language: "The senator, by this latest resolution, has laid himself more than open to the charge of playing politics, and the members of the Republican side have not been a bit backward lately in expressing their opinion along that line." The cry of "playing politics" is like the cry of "Stop thief!" and the opposition on the Republican side to the search for "campaign material" makes just as good campaign material as anybody could ask if that were the only purpose of the investigation. It is true that the Republicans have not been a bit backward about expressing themselves lately, for only last Thursday Senator West, the Republican leader in that side, boldly declared that the investigation will be stopped by the courts, although no question has yet been raised in the courts concerning any of the investigations. Neither was it known that anybody intended to irag the investigations into court.

ECZEMA NOW CURABLE.

All Itching Skin Diseases Which are Not Hereditary, Instantly Relieved by OIL of Wintergreen.

Can Eczema be cured? Some physicians say "Yes." Some say "No."

The real question is, "What is meant by Eczema?" If you mean those scaly eruptions, those diseases which make their first appearance, not at birth, but years afterward, and perhaps not until middle age—then there can no longer be any question that these forms of Eczema are curable.

Simple vegetable oil of wintergreen, mixed with other vegetable ingredients, will kill the germs that infest the skin. Apply this prescription to the skin, and instantly that awful itch is gone. The very moment the liquid is applied, that agonizing, tantalizing itch disappears, and continued applications of this external remedy soon cure the disease.

We carry in stock this oil of wintergreen properly compounded into D. D. D. Prescription. While we are not sure that it will cure all those cases of skin trouble which are inherited, we positively know that this D. D. D. Prescription, whenever rightly used, will cure every last case of genuine Eczema or other skin trouble, which did not exist at birth.

We know this. Anyway you, yourself, will know that D. D. D. Prescription instantly takes away the itch the moment it is applied to the skin. Frank D. Hall, druggist, North Park Place, Newark, O. Stop that itch today—instantly. Just call at our store and try this refreshing and soothing liquid; also ask about D. D. D. soap.

the men in the diplomatic service, was best fitted for this position—a position of the very first order—in honor and responsibility and one to which, therefore, it was deemed well to send a skilled diplomat, a German scholar, who had served with signal ability as assistant secretary of state under John Hay, and as foreign minister in two successive posts, the last of which he had rendered marked service in connection with The Hague peace conference. This purpose is, and has been, fully appreciated by the emperor personally and in Germany at large.

The nomination of Dr. Hill as ambassador to Germany will be sent to the senate today, according to plan agreed upon. No time has been fixed for the retirement of Ambassador Tower, but it is expected that Dr. Hill will succeed him some time in May.

It was stated that the purpose of the administration has been to make it evident that diplomatic positions are not to be treated as positions to be held only by millionaires, but, so far as possible, as rewards for faithful service to the public in other positions. Thus the last four ambassadors appointed, Messrs. Riddle, to Russia, Dudley to Brazil, O'Brien to Japan, and Hill to Germany, have all been men of moderate means, who, in previous positions of lower rank have shown a perfectness for performance of the duties of the higher posts to which they were appointed. It was pointed out that every ambassador now in the service has had previous diplomatic experience, and most of them long and varied experience.

The administration has been particularly anxious to have it made evident in the case of Mr. Hill, as in the case of Mr. Riddle, Mr. O'Brien and others mentioned, that the possession of merely moderate means was no bar to preferment to the higher positions, and it is because of this feeling that it so deeply regrets failure of congress to provide official residences for ambassadors abroad.

It was stated today that this failure minished directly in favor of the man of great wealth and against the man of smaller means, and both permits and causes such violent contrast in the scale of expenditure of successive incumbents of the same office and fosters just such gossip and scandal as occurred in the present instance.

APPEAL FOR AID

Condition of E. S. Redman, Who Was Recently Burned, Demands Relief.

The condition of Mr. E. S. Redman, who was burned in a fire at his country home near the Brumback school house, south of Newark, a few days ago, is very serious. Mr. Redman's feet were frightfully burned and in case he recovers, it is said that he will not be able to walk for at least three months.

Mr. Redman lost his cows, horses, chickens, hay and grain in the fire and he is destitute with a family of eight children to support. The conditions at the Redman home call for immediate relief. On Monday Messrs. David Mosholder and Joseph Butler succeeded in securing a few dollars from people whom they solicited and Mr. Stephen Vermillion and James Redman were also circulating subscription papers for the sufferer's relief. On Tuesday Mr. James O. Cooksey started out to call upon a number of others in Mr. Redman's behalf.

Mr. Redman has many friends over the county and in Newark, and any of them wishing to subscribe to his relief can find blanks at both the Advocate and the American-Tribune offices. The money left at these offices will be forwarded to him.

ONLY IN THE WAY.

Housecleaning time is now at hand, and wives will scrub to beat the band, the men folks round the house look blue—and so do all the children too, now this is just the season when, the women do not want the men, for they'd be only in the way, and grumble all the livelong day. There's floors to paint with Spartan Stain, which makes all woods look new again, and when the cleaning time is over, peace at home will reign once more. You should not try to get along at housecleaning time without Spartan Stain. Made by The Marjette Paint & Color Co., Marietta, Ohio. Sold by Newark Paint Co., 31 West Church street, Newark, O.

DEATH CONQUERORS

BRAVE FIGHT MADE BY VICTIM SO TERRIBLY BURNED.

Miss Hazel Swaney Succumbs and Passes Away Tuesday Morning at 1:30 O'clock.

After suffering intensely for the past twenty days from her injuries and burns, Miss Hazel Swaney, the young woman who met with the accident at the Styron-Beggs Chemical company's packing house, died at the Newark sanitarium Tuesday at 1:30 a. m. At her bedside at the time of her death were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Swaney, 260 Race street, and her sister, Florence.

The young woman, whose condition had been showing signs of recovery up until Monday, took a sudden change for the worse Monday evening, and by 5 o'clock she had become unconscious, in which state she remained until her death a few hours later.

Death, which resulted from the burns sustained, was due directly to poisoning of the entire system, caused by failure of the organs of the body to carry off the rapidly accumulating refuse and impurities, which is commonly known as blood poisoning.

The shocking nature of the accident which terminated Tuesday morning in the death of the victim, will be readily recalled.

On Wednesday morning, March 11, while attending to her duties in the packing house of the chemical company, in company with possibly twenty other girl employees, Miss Swaney picked up a tray on which were several bottles of turpentine. Some of the fluid was accidentally spilled down her apron, and as she passed a lighted hot-plate, the turpentine was set ablaze. Two of her companions rushed to her aid and got the fire under control, but too late. Bowers & Criss Bros' ambulance arrived on the scene almost simultaneously with the arrival of the Central fire company, and the girl was removed to the sanitarium, where she was given prompt medical aid, and where she has been receiving every attention possible since the accident up to the time of her death.

So encouraging was her condition that Drs. Barnes and Shiner, who attended her, found it safe to begin the operation of grafting new flesh on some of the burned parts. This was done Sunday, but owing to the weakness which the victim suffered, the physicians announced before the operation that they would only do a small portion of the grafting at this time.

Misses Mabel and May Summers and Miss Cora Stack each donated a portion of flesh to be grafted upon the arms of the young woman.

Miss Swaney was a particular favorite with her associates at the chemical company's packing house, as their devotion to her at the time of the accident and afterward, showed. She also had scores of friends outside of the factory, whose daily inquiries kept the hospital attendants and the newspaper offices busy giving out information as to her condition.

The victim of the accident, in spite of her suffering, witnessed the passing of her 18th birthday anniversary one week ago Monday, expressing encouraging words to her relatives and friends.

There remain but the parents and one sister, Florence, aged 16 years.

The scene in the packing house of the chemical company Tuesday was a particularly touching one, when the young women there were informed of the death of Miss Swaney. Tears flowed freely and many were the expressions of regret at the dire calamity which took their companion from their midst.

Mr. F. L. Beggs, head of the firm, has exerted every effort to bring relief to the young woman since the accident, and has aided materially in her care. Mr. Beggs on Tuesday expressed the formal sympathy of the company and its employees to the bereft family of the young woman.

The employees will be dismissed to attend the funeral in a body and to show the last respect to one of the youngest and most valued young women in the packing department of the concern.

Tuesday morning the body was removed to the Criss Bros. & Jones undertaking parlors and properly cared for. Later the remains were taken to the home, 260 Race street, where the funeral will take place on Thursday. The exact hour has not yet been set.

Owl Caused Conflagration.
An owl flew out of a burning chimney at Coverach, Cornwall, England, with its feathers on fire, and perched on a hay-rick near at hand. The result was that the rick was completely destroyed, and several stacks of straw barely escaped.

BOARD HOLDS SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held Monday evening for the purpose of considering bids on the installation of intercommunicating telephones and program clock. There were present at the meeting Messrs. Beggs, Fulton, Haight, Comad and Keller.

The following were the bids received by the board: On installation of 'phones, the Wingate & Brooks company of Cleveland, $1,313; The Newark Electric company, $1,475; C. E. Hollander, manager of the Newark Telephone company, $1,190.75. For installation of program clock, Wingate & Brooks company, of Cleveland, $164; by the Newark Electric company, $114. On motion the contract for installation of 'phones was awarded to Wingate & Brooks of Cleveland, at their bid of $1,343. The contract for the installation of program clock was awarded to the Newark Electric company at their bid of $114.

Superintendent Simkins reported Miss Hattie Jones absent on account of sickness, and that she would probably not be able to resume work for some time. He asked the advice of the board as to securing a substitute, and that J. W. Adams, a graduate of Ohio University at Athens, now taking a post graduate course in the pedagogical department, could probably be secured as a substitute for some time. The board authorized Superintendent Simkins to engage Mr. Adams.

A Higher Health Level.

"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at F. D. Hall's drug store, 25c.

nied them by the operators, who seem determined to force a shutdown of mines, for a time, at least.

Elliott Thomas Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, was appealed to late yesterday afternoon by the Pittsburgh district mine workers. He came to Pittsburgh today.

Lewis assumed the reins of government in the Pittsburgh district in spite of President John Mitchell, and will make an effort to avert the impending strike or lockout.

There is much bitterness displayed against Mitchell here. His term of office expires at the same moment the Pittsburgh scale of prices runs out, and this, the mine workers say, has left them practically at the mercy of the operators. This was the reason Lewis was asked to come here one day before he really becomes head of the national organization, to see what he can do with the operators. It is expected that negotiation will come from President Mitchell that he, not Lewis, is president; but if so, it is threatened by the miners that his authority will be brushed aside.

One of the biggest operators in the Pittsburgh district announced last night that the operators were ready to make the fight which they long had in mind.

CONTRACTS EXPIRE.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 21.—The union miners in most of the soft coal fields of the country will lay down their picks and shovels tonight. About 250,000 of them will stop work in Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, and probably in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, West Virginia and Kentucky. The mining contracts under which they are now working expire at midnight tonight, and except in Central Pennsylvania and in the Indiana block coal district no new contracts have been made, nor have the miners and operators yet entered into district agreements providing for the operation of the mines after April 1 pending agreement.

Technically the miners will go out on strike, but in reality they stop work because the operators, except in Indiana and Illinois, show no real intention of meeting and treating with them.
